Crowd Strike
Global Leader in Cybersecurity

March 20, 2024

Dear Hiring Manager,

I am writing to express my strong interest in the Operations Program Intern position at Crowd Strike, as advertised. With a background in [Accounting/Business Management/related field] and a keen interest in the business side of a Product Engineering organization, I am excited about the opportunity to contribute to the day-to-day running of the Product Operational Success Team (POST) at Crowd Strike.

My academic pursuits align perfectly with the requirements stated, as I am currently pursuing a Bachelor's degree and set to graduate between December 2024 and June 2026. My experience working effectively both independently and in team settings, combined with proficiency in Google Drive and Microsoft Outlook, equips me to excel in supporting the executive support, travel/meetings, and administration aspects of the role.

During my previous roles, I have honed my skills in data evaluation, ensuring accuracy in reporting, and have actively participated in cross-functional team meetings, which I believe will be valuable in the dynamic environment at Crowd Strike. Moreover, my experience with [mention any relevant systems/programs you have experience with, e.g., Asana, Jira, Qualtrics, Tableau] adds an extra dimension to my capabilities, enabling me to contribute effectively to potential projects focusing on automation and process improvement.

I am enthusiastic about the possibility of working at Crowd Strike, a company known for its commitment to cybersecurity excellence and fostering talent. I am eager to bring my energy, skills, and passion for operational efficiency to contribute to making the digital world a safer place to live and work.
